Clark Kendall of Kendall Capital Management Selected to Join the Board of Directors for the Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce's 2013-2014 Term

The head of the area's leading financial services firm recognized for his community outreach and involvement efforts, and continued contributions to the County

ROCKVILLE, MD —December 20, 2012- The Award-winning Maryland-based financial services firm Kendall Capital Management (KCM) announces today that its CEO, President, and Founder, Clark Kendall, CFA, AEP, CFP®, has been selected to join the Montgomery County, Maryland Chamber of Commerce for the 2013-2014 term. He was selected for this new role as a result of his significant and enduring impacts on and contributions to the local business environment as well as a number of community and philanthropic organizations.

A committed local business owner and community activist as well as lifelong Montgomery County resident, Mr. Kendall currently sits on a number of boards and is involved with several worthy organizations, including the Olney Boys and Girls Club \(OBGC\), where he also acts as a Boy Scout leader and basketball coach; the Olney Lions Club, the Sandy Spring Museum, and the Montgomery County Estate Planning Council. In addition, Clark recently partnered with the Olney Boys and Girls Club to host a ground-breaking ceremony to kick-off the restoration of the Falling Green historic structure. In total, Mr. Kendall consistently donates over 35 hours of time each month to these organizations.

Clark has over thirty years of experience in investment management and wealth management strategies. As a founder of Kendall Capital, Mr. Kendall is focused on providing intelligent, independent financial direction to high-net-worth individuals and families in and around Montgomery County, Maryland. He is also a member of several industry organizations, including the National Association of Personal Financial Advisors \(NAPFA\), and Kendall Capital Management was also recently included on Northern Virginia Magazine's Top Financial Professionals list for 2012 for its expertise and quality service.

In his new role on the board of the Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce for the 2013-2014 term, began on Wednesday November 14th, 2012, Clark will join several other local business executives and act as an instrumental voice to drive continued innovation and success for business owners and community groups alike throughout the County. Clark will also participate in Member Meetings, which offer members insight, input and engagement in key areas that shape businesses and the economy, notably Economic Development, GovConNet, Infrastructure & Land Use, Legislative Affairs and Small Business.

“I am excited to continue to give back to the community through my new role on the board of the Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce,” said KCM CEO Clark Kendall. “I look forward to expanding my ability to contribute to the forward growth and success of the Montgomery County business community through this new leadership role.”

“We are thrilled to welcome Clark Kendall to the Board of Directors for the Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce,” Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce President & CEO, Gigi Godwin, said. “His experience and position as a leading local business owner as well as his commitment to and passion for community outreach and involvement make him a great addition to our board and organization overall.”
