Kendall Capital Management Positioned for Strong Growth, Continued Success in 2013

KCM President, Clark Kendall, expands the firm's footprint and recognition in number of area groups and programs

Rockville, MD – January 22, 2013 – Kendall Capital Management (KCM), the award-winning Maryland-based financial services firm, announces its continued success and strong positioning for a strong 2013 in its recent recognitions and group memberships. These recent milestones demonstrate the company's continued focus on future growth as well as its commitment to expanded involvement and participation, at the industry, business, and community levels.

KCM President, Clark Kendall, recently joined the Washington D.C. chapter of the Entrepreneur's Organization, a global business network founded in 1987 comprising over 8,000 business owners across 122 chapters and 35 countries. This new membership will enable Clark to continue to bolster the company's growth and lead it forward on a strong path while also bringing the benefit of this growth to work for KCM's clients.

Additionally, KCM was also recently recognized by the Washington, D.C. metro area's larger business community as one of the top Wealth Managers in the Mid-Atlantic region. As a result, the firm will be profiled in the February, 2013 issue of the publication as part of Washington SmartCEO Magazine's recent Reader's Choice program. This latest recognition highlights the positive impact KCM's expertise and track-record for results that the company has built its reputation on since its founding.

"We are thrilled to be continuing to branch out into new groups and recognitions so early in 2013," said KCM president Clark Kendall. "These types of activities are central to our continued commitment to highest-quality service and expertise coupled with a strong involvement in our local industry and business communities. We look forward to continuing to build on this success over the rest of 2013!"

KCM has grown at a steady rate of 5 percent per quarter for the past 12 quarters. A trend Kendall anticipates continuing over the next few years. "With the continuation of our steady growth rate, we expect to be close to hitting our $100 million in assets under management goal by the end of 2013," Kendall concluded.
