Kendall Capital Management Reveals New Addition to Thriving Financial Team
Carol Petrov, CFP® joins the Kendall Capital team as Financial Advisor

ROCKVILLE, MD —July 2, 2014 - Kendall Capital Management, (KCM), the award winning Maryland-based financial services firm, proudly welcomes a new financial specialist to the team. Carol Petrov is an expert in both financial advising and planning with over 12 years of experience and will add to the tremendous growth that KCM has seen in 2014 already.

As a financial advisor with KCM, Petrov will develop and implement wealth management strategies for the Middle Class Millionaires of the Greater Washington, DC area. Petrov's past experience at other firms in Rockville and Bethesda as well as her CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ certification will allow her to excel in this new role. Her skill set includes in depth training in financial advising, accomplishments at seminars and building strong-tie relationships with clients.

"My staff and I are extremely excited to bring such a qualified person onto our team," KCM CEO, Clark Kendall, says. "Carol Petrov was selected out of other strong candidates, but we are confident she will bring the best out of our clients and make vital decisions that will benefit our team and company as a whole in the long run."

Petrov achieved a Bachelor's degree in Human Resources Management and Psychology at The George Washington University School of Business. Petrov's proficiency in long term planning provides driven service to detect and resolve problems with demanding clientele. With her excellent inter-personal skills, Petrov will be able utilize her expertise and experience to provide KCM's clients with the best service to guarantee their financial success.
