Boy Scouts of America (BSA) National Capital Area Council Recognizes Kendall Capital
CEO of award-winning financial services firm, Clark Kendall, selected to receive Leadership
Award for continued commitment and participation in local BSA chapter

Rockville, MD — September 25, 2014 – Award-winning Maryland-based financial services firm, Kendall Capital Management \(KCM\), announces today that KCM president and founder, Clark Kendall, has been selected to receive the Leadership Award from the Boy Scouts of America (BSA) National Capital Area Council on Tuesday October 7th at the Gaithersburg Marriott Washington Center at 7:30pm for his commitment in giving back to his local chapter.

Kendall is active as a registered adult volunteer and BSA leader for Troop 759, which is chartered to Ashton United Methodist Church. Kendall's son is an Eagle Scout in Troop 759 and together they have partaken in many BSA excursions. Committed to serving his community, Clark sits on various boards and is involved with many worthy organizations, including the Montgomery County Chapter of Commerce, Olney Boys and Girls Club (OBGC), Olney Lions, Sandy Spring Museum and Montgomery County Estate Planning Council.

“It is an honor to be recognized as a leader by the BSA,” KCM CEO Kendall stated. “Serving my community and giving back to the area where I grew up has always been a wonderful experience. I look forward to continuing my commitment to the local community and making a difference in the future.”

Clark Kendall will receive the Leadership Award at the 2014 Leadership Recognition Award Dinner on Tuesday, October 7, 2014, at 7:30pm at the Gaithersburg Marriott Washingtonian Center. KCM is no stranger to recognition. Clark Kendall recently received the Business Advocate of the Year Award from the Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce (MCCC) and is among a select few wealth managers worldwide who have earned the triple designations of Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA), Certified Financial Planner (CFP) and Accredited Estate Planner (AEP).
