Kendall Capital Selected as Recipient of The Gazette of Politics and Business Fifth Annual Exceptional 53 Business Award

ROCKVILLE, MD —October 26, 2012- The Award-winning Maryland-based financial services firm Kendall Capital Management (KCM) is proud to announce that it has been ranked 42nd on The Gazette of Politics and Business' P&B 53 list for 2012. The P&B 53 program acknowledges the top businesses and organizations in the state of Maryland based on criteria that include the company's growth, noteworthy service innovations, community outreach efforts and strategic business plans.

"I am so honored to have Kendall Capital Management named to the list of 53 Exceptional Maryland companies," said KCM CEO Clark Kendall. "Being listed is a testament to Kendall Capital's commitment to providing our clients with excellent services and giving back to the local community that we work and live in."

KCM was recognized for providing its exceptional, fee-only financial planning and managing services to local Washington D.C. metro area residents, its consistent presence and support of the community through philanthropic efforts, including the Olney Boys and Girls Club, Sandy Spring Museum and Boy Scout Troop 759, and creating a teamwork attitude and approach in the work place for employees.

The fifth annual P&B 53 awards ceremony, held on Thursday, October, 25th, 2012 at the Gaithersburg Hilton Hotel, attracted a large crowd of business executives from across Maryland eager to celebrate the accomplishments of the top companies. Sponsors for the event included Montgomery College, Hughes Network Systems, LLC, Montgomery County Commuter Services and Rockville Economic Development, Inc. The award event featured included networking opportunities, a cocktail reception, speeches and the distribution of the awards.

Kendall Capital will be profiled in a special section as part of the Friday, October 26th, 2012 edition of The Gazette of Politics and Business with the other award winners.
